

PRESS RELEASE

CADBURY SCHWEPPE'S SEVENTH MOST ADMIRED COMPANY

12 Dec 03

For the sixth year in a row, Cadbury Schweppes has been rated one of Management Today's top 10 Most Admired Companies in Britain. The company also came joint first in the Food Producers & Processors category.

The overall ranking of seventh reflects Cadbury Schweppes' strong position in two categories: Quality of Marketing and Community & Environmental Responsibility.

Chief Executive, Todd Stitzer said: "I'm very pleased Cadbury Schweppes features in Management Today's top 10 Most Admired Companies. This year has been one of transition with a new management structure and the integration of our largest acquisition, Adams, but colleagues have continued to focus on delivering the business and it is encouraging to be recognised for the quality of the work that we do."

Management Today polls the country's leading companies for its survey including our peers and competitors. For more details visit www.mtmagazine.co.uk (Management Today's website).
